Company Profile

About us

ICYKOOOL has a rich history of being the trusted HVAC solutions partner in large scale projects. After garnering extensive experience in the industry abroad,

Ravi Kushalappa founded ICYKOOOL in 1996. Based out of Bangalore, ICYKOOOL has been at the forefront of delivering exceptional Heating, Ventilation, and Air Conditioning products and services.

Our expertise extends across diverse projects, from tech parks and shopping malls to hospitals, corporate offices, and public sector initiatives like metros and power stations. Our expanding client base started with Café Coffee Day chain outlets in 2000s to later include prestigious organisations like Mindtree IT Solutions, Manipal Hospitals, Happiest Minds Technologies and Wrigley Chewing Gum factory.

ICYKOOOL currently entails a team of 50 members who are dedicated to our mission towards ecological conservation. We have partnered with prominent HVAC product manufacturers and have on-board professional solution architects. This powerful synergy has enabled us to grow exponentially and attain a reputed clientele.

Our commitment to customer satisfaction stems out of our confidence in our product partner and the rapidly growing potential of our expert team. Integrity, innovation, and intelligence form the foundation of our project tenders. We're committed to transparency and providing value for money. Having established a prominent place in the corporate sector in and around Bangalore, ICYKOOOL aims to soon expand to other metropolitan markets of India.
